

Important Notice
HIGH COURT INJUNCTION
(claim no QB-2022-001420)

On 23 May 2023 and following a review hearing held on 25-6 April 2023, an injunction (the "Order") was made by the High Court of Justice prohibiting anyone acting by express or implied agreement with others, in connection with protest campaigns, from disrupting the sale or supply of fuel to or from any Shell branded petrol station in England and Wales (the 'Shell Petrol Station').

The Order prohibits:

1. Directly blocking or impeding access to any pedestrian or vehicular entrance to a Shell Petrol Station forecourt or to a building within the Shell Petrol Station;
2. Causing damage to any part of a Shell Petrol Station or to any equipment or infrastructure (including but not limited to fuel pumps) upon it;
3. Operating or disabling any switch or other device in or on a Shell Petrol Station so as to interrupt the supply of fuel from that Shell Petrol Station, or from one of its fuel pumps, or so as to prevent the emergency interruption of the supply of fuel at the Shell Petrol Station.
4. Causing damage to any part of a Shell Petrol Station, whether by:
  - a. affixing or locking themselves, or any object or person, to any part of a Shell Petrol Station, or to any other person or object on or in a Shell Petrol Station;
  - b. erecting any structure in, on or against any part of a Shell Petrol Station;
  - c. spraying, painting, pouring, depositing or writing in any substance on to any part of a Shell Petrol Station.

You must not do any of the above acts either yourself or by means of another person acting on your behalf, instructions, encouragement or assistance.

Anyone in breach of the Order will be in contempt of court and may be imprisoned, fined or have their assets seized. The persons affected by the Order are Persons Unknown acting in connection with, and associated to, environmental campaigns and protests with the intention of disrupting the sale or supply of fuel to or from Shell Petrol Stations.

This means that you must not do any of these things on this Shell Petrol Station.

If you do, you may be sent to prison or have your assets seized.

Any person affected by this Order may apply to the Court at any time to vary or discharge it but if they wish to do so they must inform Shell UK Oil Products Limited's solicitors by email to the address specified below 48 hours before making such application of the nature of such application and the basis for it.

The Order will be reviewed at a hearing to be listed in April 2024. Details of the time and date of the hearing can be obtained from Shell UK Oil Products Limited's solicitors by email on the address specified below.
